Trail riding in Rangeley is worry free. If you're unfamiliar with the area, trails are well marked; detailed maps are available at many local businesses, or take a guided tour. Local dealers are happy to provide sales, service, and rentals. If you need gas, a place to stay, or a bite to eat, the Rangeley Region offers trailside services for all your snowmobiling needs. So, grab your camera and experience the Rangeley Region's world-class hospitality!

Ski The Big, Affordable, Different Mountain.

Saddleback Maine offers the most affordable big-mountain skiing/riding experience in New England. Best known as a family mountain, Saddleback combines the alpine wilderness experience with the comforts and amenities of a new timber-framed lodge with grand stone hearth and fireplace. Located in the lodge: Food Court, Coffee Bar, Ski and Ride School, Child Care Center, Swing N Smelt Pub, Powder Dreams Rental and Retail Shop, ATM, Real Estate Office. Fifty-nine trails are accessed by five lifts (1 quad, 2 doubles, 2 T-bars). In addition to 200 inches of natural snowfall each year, snowmaking covers 85% of Saddleback Mountain. Combine a vertical drop of 2000 feet and a summit of 4120 feet with affordable rates, and you will find the skiing/riding has never been better. A magnificent Mountain with genuine values and a gentle soul. Home of the largest advanced skier complex in the East with 12 top-to-bottom trails and glades. www.saddlebackmaine.com

Nordic Skiing and Snowshoeing Enjoy the newly-created trails at the Rangeley Lakes Trails Center located on lower Saddleback Mountain. Trails are immaculately groomed with a skating lane and a track for classic skiing. Our third year at this new location brings you fifty kilometers of exciting new trails winding through the quiet woods where you'll most likely catch a glimpse of the small creatures that live there or come to a breathtaking view of the mountains and frozen lakes. Experience some of the best Nordic trails in the East as well as snowshoeing and backcountry trails. Enjoy our trails all year for hiking, mountain biking, and birding. Rangeley Lakes Trails Center, 524 Saddleback Mtn. Road. Only 4 miles from downtown Rangeley. www.rangeleyxcski.com
